Needed products should be free. Diapers, whips, etc should all be free because some families cannot afford

Things like that when they need it.

Baby food or toothbrushes and toothpaste should be free.

Everyone should get a free check or list of things for their family if they Cannot afford things.

Ulta Beauty

Ulta Beauty, Inc. is the largest beauty retailer in the United States selling both mass and prestige cosmetics, fragrances, skin care and hair care products, in addition to offering salon services. Ulta Beauty's success is rooted in a single consumer insight that the founders uncovered. Like all great insights, it is simple but meaningful: Most consumers shop for and buy beauty products across price points, across categories, and across brands. They are looking to curate their own collection.

The beauty company changed its name in 2017. Before January 2017, the company was known as Ulta Salon, Cosmetics & Fragrance, Inc., but since has consolidated its name to Ulta Beauty.

Bath and body work. Oh my!!!!

Bath and body work is a very known store

And the company's known for more than just perfume and soap. Fans love their candles too, and have made the store the #1 retailer in America for body lotion, body cream, body wash, body fragrance, hand soap, and hand sanitizer. Bath & Body Works has between 300 and 400 unique scents in their stores, brand representatives confirmed to Bustle. The number of scents the retailer carries can even reach 500 during the holiday season.

"My best friend is having boy problems I'm worried for her.

Dear concerned student,

The way to try and help your best friend through this rough time is let her know your willing to talk about what's ever on her mind ,ask her if there is anything you can do to help her ,if she refuses the help don't get upset or mad except it and give her some time to think about what's going on she might just need some time to herself to think about what she needs to do and her surroundings your best friend might not want to take your advice right away even though you might think it's the best choice for her, but sooner or later she may just stick by her side even at her worst to show how much you care and things may get easier for her.

"How do you put someone down easy?"

Dear Valued Student,

It's never easy to let someone down but the best way is to be upfront about it and do it as soon as possible. If you drag it out and let the person think that everything's okay, you'll start to feel suffocated in the relationship and when you finally tell the person, it'll hurt even more. You should always let someone down in person, if you can't, over the phone is good too. (Pro tip: Don't do it over text, it just adds salt to the wound.) Tell the person why you think it won't work out, there's nothing worse than a flimsy excuse. ("It's not you, it's me!") The longer you go without saying something, the more of a hassle it'll be letting that person down. Honestly, there's no easy way to let someone down, it's always going to be painful on both ends, but again: Do it in person and be honest with the person and yourself. This is the type of problem you can't ignore and hope it'll go away.

Wishing you the best of luck,
