

The Titan Times

“These are our times.”

DECA
EDITION

Regionals

On Dec 19 th West Side CTC Business Marketing students competed in DECA regional competition held at Lehigh Valley Community College. DECA is a national marketing club for high school students across the country. West Side CTC students competed against schools from the northeast part of Pennsylvania.

5 West Side students won medals (category and place after their names), which qualifies them to participate in DECA State Competition held in February at the Hershey Lodge and Inn. West Side CTC accepts students from Wyoming Valley West, Northwest, Wyoming Area, Lake Lehman, and Dallas. For more information on the Business Marketing Program at West Side CTC please call the school at 570 288 8493 and ask for Mr. Tom Pieczynski Jr.

Mason ACEVEDO (Dallas). Dashae Jenkins RFSM 5th (Dallas),

Mason ACEVEDO (Dallas), JIANNA Wanyo (Wyoming Valley West),

Emilia Hernandez (WVW), Madelyn Panatero (WVW),

Nahlah Bosley (WVW), Jayla Garrity (WVW) Naveah Van Kirk (WVW), Jacob Buczek (WVW)

State Competition

Students from West Side Career and Technology Center's Business Marketing program recently participated in DECA state competition. The annual event was held in Hershey, PA and the competition hosted over 3 thousand students from across the state of Pennsylvania from February 21 st to the 23 rd .

DECA is a national marketing organization for high school students. West Side CTC accepts students from Dallas, Wyoming Valley West, Wyoming Area, Northwest, and Lake Lehman.

Congratulations to all the students who competed. For more information on the Business Marketing program, please contact Mr.

Thomas Pieczynski jr. at 570-288-8493.

Participants left to right with sending school in parentheses